

GRAPPA

Valdiplatta Grappa is made from unpressed marc of Prugnolo Gentile and Canaiolo grapes, the same used to produce the Vino Nobile di Montepulciano, and skinfully distilled in old copper still mounted on brick kilns. Clear and pleasantly aromatic, it imparts to nose and palate all the characteristics of its original grapes, revealing at the same time a strong personality.